BONAPARTE WOULD VOTE FOR ROOSEVEL

Former Secretary of the Navy Expects Third Ticket in the Field Next Year.

BALTIMORE, Dec. 23.-Charles Bonaparte, former Attorney General and ex-Secretary of the Navy, also unreconstructed Progressive, in a characteristic talk last night before the Roosevelt Progressive Club, told what he thought were the prospects of the Progressive party and what, in his opinion, ought to be that party's policy. The movements of Colonel Roosevelt he thought, were causing considerable cratic and Republican parties. The concern to members of both the Demonewspapers of the country a few days age discovered that he had gone out to dinner and they had given all sorts of explanations and reasons for the dinner, the principal one of which seemed to be that it was for the purpose of launching Colonel Roosevelt's boom for the Presidential nomination of the Republican party, and there were circumstantial descriptions of how this nomination was to be brought about. The thing which struck Mr. Bonaparte as peculiar, however, was that the boom was being launched in secret, and as far as he could remember he never heard of the secret launching of a boom.

Would Vote For Colonel.

I feel satisfied of one thing," said Mr. Bonaparte, "and that is if Colonel Roosevelt should be a candidate, I expect to vote for him, and I imagine that there are several others here who will do likewise, and possibly there are half dozen more men throughout the counwho will also vote for him. as for his schemes and plottings, he has not taken me into his confidence." Mr. Bonaparte felt that instead of the hope that Colonel Roosevelt might a Presidential nominee being the father of the thought, it was feared on the part of both the Republicans and Democrats that such might be the case for he felt sure that the knees of every bemocrat and of most Republicans knocked together in a most agitated manner when such a possibility was gressive candidate, and a good one, and it would make no difference to him even if he should be on another ticket then the Progressive.

"For," he said, "the duty of the Progressives is not to save the righteous, but to call sinners to repentance; and if the sinner proceeds to repent in the right sort of way, so much the better for him, and quite as well for me." As for his party's prospects, he thought it mighty hard to say what the irrespects of any party were at this time, and he was not at all disposed to helieve that our present President would ontinue to occupy the White House, and if he should be re-elected, he felt that it would be because of the weakness of his enemies rather than the strength of his friends or his own strength before the country. As for the Republicans, they did not know what they were going to do them-selves, while it was pretty certain that the Democrats would renominate Presi-

Raises Submarine Issue.

The convention that met in Baltimore, he said, adopted as one of its planks the declaration that every American citizen was entitled to the full pro-tection of his Government, whether he was at home, on the high seas or properly in any foreign land, and that promise the Democratic party and the President it had elected had failed to keep. And that issue, he feit, would be the most momentous that would be decided in the next Presidential election, and it involved the question of the national

The people, he said, would demand that this nation act in a manner worthy of a great nation. They would not want a man who would be too proud to fight, but who would be too proud to be thought afraid to fight, and, he said. "I think we will get that sort of

Roosevelt Boom Merely A "Feeler" to the G.O.P. Chiefs, New York Hears

NEW YORK, Dec. 23.-The Roosevell boom for the Republican Presidential nomination has been shot out through the country by ardent admirers of the the opinion of several Republican Na-tional Committeemen and party leaders them at lowest prices at here to meet with National Chairman Charles D. Hilles today. Committeeman Charles A. Spies of

New Mexico, who conferred with Hilles, said flatly that he does not believe the colonel has any thought of trying for the Republican nomination. Committee-man Ralph H. Cameron of Arizona said he believed some of the colonel's friends were trying to convince him against his will that the country was demanding

They think the colonel will toss his hat into the ring if the country warms up to the talk of his candidacy," said Cameron. "There are other gentlemen who think the country's response to the Rooscyclt feelers will convince his closest friends that the Republican party should not nominate the colonel." Among the six national committeemen from the West gathering here, it was plain that there was no sentiment fa-vering the colonel. They all expressed the belief that the Republican party could win with Boosevett; but, accord-ing to one Western leader

We are not going to win with Roose velt. Neither Taft nor Roosevelt wil he able to swing the next convention."
